

THE DAILY BULLETIN
TUESDAY EVENING, MAY 13, 1894.

Mr. JOHN R. PROCTOR has been re-appointed State Geologist.

Butlers is the choice of the New York Greenbackers for President.

The Irish Catholic Colonization Society of the United States is in session at Chicago.

The bill to equalize tax assessments in Kentucky has passed the House of Representatives.

Most of the Fall River mills have resumed with imported cheap labor and starved-out strikers.

BON INGLETT laments that the dimensions in the Republican party bring little men to the fore.

It is reported that prominent business men at New York have started to raise a fund for the relief of Gen. Grant.

BLAINE is pointed out as a poor man, but he will show the brethren what a bank account is if he gets the nomination.

The New York Tribune thinks the defeat of the Morrison bill is not the end, but only the beginning of a desperate struggle on the tariff question.

It is rumored that the telegraphers are again organizing for self-protection, and that a bill of grievances will be presented to the various companies this summer.

"Born General Grant and Mr. Conkling," says Harper's Weekly, are unfriendly to the President. In these days, McKinley speaks of President Arthur as "that man."

The Cincinnati Times-Star says, notwithstanding the tremendous efforts of friends of Blaine, the latter cannot win, the Ohio delegation can not be relied upon to march in solid array with the Mulligan Guards.

The New York Free Trade Club met and adopted resolutions condemning the action of Congress in defeating the Morrison bill, and urging the passage of some measure which would bring about a reduction in the tariff.

This House has passed the bill granting an additional pension to the widow of Francis P. Blair. It grants her $5,000 for her husband's services in the organization of troops, and increases her pension to $50 a month.

This is the way Henry Ward Beecher feels on the Blaine question: "I can not reiterate my sentiments on the subject of Mr. Blaine's candidacy too strongly. His nomination would be a public calamity, and this election a national disgrace."

A DESPATCH from New York says the East Tennessee and Virginia Railroad have signed a contract with the Kentucky Central by which the former is to come into Cincinnati over the line of the latter. In consequence of the arrangement the bonds of the Kentucky Central have advanced from sixty to sixty-eight in the last seven or eight days.

MORRIS JOHNSON, one of the negro convicts who murdered Capt. Lewis Craig, superintendent of convict labor, near Mt. Vernon, Ky., a few days ago, has been confined and is in danger of being lynched. Johnson was sent to the penitentiary from this county in 1881, to serve a sentence of five years for grand larceny. He is a black negro, of medium build and has a mean-looking face.

Heavy Laborers announce his intention of coming to this county—not to lecture or to act or to write a book, but to revive youthful reminiscences and to look up a few old friends who, perchance, may be living.

The venerable Mrs. George Bancroft, wife of the historian, has been compelled by illness to keep her room most of the winter, but is now well enough to hope to leave Washington early in June and to go with her husband to their summer home in Newport.

An enthusiastic Florence correspondent insists that Miss Louise de la Rampe, better known as "Ouida," is only forty-three and that she has made half a million dollars from her writings. Both statements are extravagant—so are an underestimates, the other as an overestimate.

A BANGUARY CONFLICT

Precipitated By a Negro Slapping a Young White Woman.
DALLAS, Tex., May 13.—A serious shooting affray between blacks and whites occurred Saturday night at Hempstead, a little station fifty miles north of Houston, on the Houston and Texas Central Railroad. A negro named Randall Peterson started the scene of a marauding named Schwartz, about 7 o'clock in the evening, and insulted Schwartz's daughter, finally slapping her in the face. He then fled. He was pursued by the City Marshal and a posse of eight white men, who were met by about twenty-five armed negroes at a place named Spring. The whites returned the fire. A negro named Jerry Oliver was wounded and captured, City Marshal Pickney and another white man were shot, but it is not thought mortally. Peterson escaped. Yesterday there was great excitement among the white people. Officers and a large number of citizens were preparing to set out to make arrests. More trouble is apprehended, and there will probably be much bloodshed. There was strong talk of lynching the negroes implicated in the affray.

A WESTERN JUSTICE

Could Find Nothing in His Books on Which to Punish a Murderer.
ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 13.—Deputy United States Marshal Price arrived here last night from Copper City, a little village about fifty miles north of Albuquerque, bringing news of a cruel murder, followed by the most astounding action on the part of a justice of the peace. A sheep herder named Joseph E. Dugrate had a small boy working for him to whom he was extremely cruel. Last Monday the lifeless body of the boy was found hanging to a small tree half a mile from the house. Dugrate was taken before Justice Hica, at Nacimiento, for a preliminary examination and that official declared that he could find nothing in his books which authorized him to hold the accused. The man immediately made tracks for the mountains, where he succeeded in hiding himself from the infuriated people who turned out to look for him. If he is caught there will be no necessity for a trial. Throats have also been held that if he is not caught the justice will have to suffer.

A Fossil Saucian.

MINNEAPOLIS, Kan., May 13.—There is in this county a fossil saurian owned by John Fotta. It is looked upon by scientific men as of great value. It is only partially buried, but is estimated to be about forty feet long. Some parties this week mutilated it by breaking off the jaw and carrying it away. Squire Feather, on the information of John Fotta, issued warrants for the arrest of State Veterinary Surgeon Holcomb, Commissioners John T. White and Noble Barker, charging them with the vandalism. It is supposed the parties will try to find out whether the saurian died of the foot and mouth disease.

The Fifteenth Amendment.

WASHINGTON, May 13.—Representative Collins was directed to favorably report a joint resolution proposing an amendment to the constitution of the United States. It consists of the insertion of the word "natively," and makes the first section read as follows: "The right of citizen of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any State, on account of nativity, race, color or previous condition of servitude."

Bombshell in the Camp.

BALTIMORE, May 13.—At the sixth day's session of the African M. B. Church this morning, Rev. C. S. Smith, of Illinois, offered a series of resolutions, which proved quite a bombshell. They were in reference to apostolical succession, the wearing of robes, etc., which they condemn in a most severe manner. After much lively debate the resolutions were adopted by a vote of 127 yeas to 11 nays.

A Heavy Mortgage.

CINCINNATI, May 13.—A mortgage to secure the payment of $100,000, from A. D. Reed and wife, of New York City, to John B. Alley, of Lynn, Massachusetts, was filed in the Recorder's Office this morning. The mortgage is given on twenty-eight acres of property owned by the "South Fairmount Land Company."

CONDENSED NEWS.

STEDMAN & STEWART, grain dealers, Grayville, Ill., have failed.

The Philadelphia and Reading Railroad Company has disclaimed 300 ton-habits and car-builders. Dull times.

GEORGE BIRD and wife, and Rosevelt Shoppard and wife, editors of counterfeiting money, have been arrested at Algiers, La.

The pioneers of Dallas County, Tex., including all who came to the county prior to 1850, are making arrangements for a reunion July 12.

PLANS have been agreed upon for the erection of a new hotel at Austin, Texas, by a Chicago syndicate. The building is to cost $250,000.

The coffee imports into the port of Galveston, Tex., for the past ten months, from July 1, 1893, to May 1, 1894, were 7,375,454 pounds, valued at $1,008,940.

It is noted that the telegraphers are again organizing for self-protection, and that a bill of grievances will be presented to the various companies this summer.

REPRESENTATIVE O'NEILL, of Missouri, has prepared a bill which will introduce a clause at the first opportunity, placing all articles of food on the free list.

FERDINAND MANDEL, and Dave Walcott, negro, captured Cincinnati crooks, were arrested at Chicago with a large quantity of stolen jewelry in their possession.

PETER CARBETTE, a Frenchman at Steelhead, Tenn., could speak English, but nobody dared to, out his throat, and went where French is the standard tongue.

FRANCIS GREENGLASS has been beaten against drugists in Minneapolis, Kan., for selling intoxicating liquors, and the Sunday law is also being enforced in the town.

ON Monday last General Grant borrowed from W. H. Vanderbilt $150,000 to tide his firm over its difficulties. Then the crash came. Grant executed a mortgage on all his own and wife's property to make Vanderbilt safe. On Saturday Vanderbilt returned the papers to the general, thus virtually presenting him with $150,000.

POOR FELLOWS ARE DUMB.

Officers of the City of Rome Refuse to Explain Their Criminal Conduct.
NEW YORK, May 13.—The steamship City of Rome arrived at quarantine at ten p. m. and anchored for the night. A reporter who went on board was unable to obtain any information from Captain Munice with regard to the sighting of the bark which had the survivors of the sunken steamship State of Florida on board on the City of Rome's last trip. He positively declined to have anything to say on the subject, having been instructed by agents. He was said, to be "mum."

"Can you tell me how near you were to the bark when you sighted her?" an officer was asked.

He put his hands to his lips significantly and replied, "I cannot say."

Only a Cincinnati Murderer.
CINCINNATI, May 13.—Officer Devoto, a private watchman in the Atlantic beer hall, in this city, shot and fatally wounded Thomas McBurnett last night at 11 o'clock. The Atlantic beer hall is a low free concert den frequented by gamblers and the demimonde, and Devoto is notoriously a murderer, having been more than once under arrest for using his revolver too readily as an officer. McBurnett, the man shot, is himself a dangerous man, having shot Officer Hall in the leg some years ago while resisting arrest. He is married and has four children. The shooting was the result of a quarrel aggravated by McBurnett's attack on an officer because the men, but all eyes witnesses say that Devoto's use of his pistol was unwarranted.

An Unfortunate Woman.
CINCINNATI, May 13.—About 10:30 this morning a woman, giving her name as Mary Walsh, twenty-two, applied at 515 West Ninth street, and requested to be allowed to use the water-closet. Her request was granted, and a few minutes later her screams attracted the attention of those in the house, who, on opening the door, discovered that the woman had given birth to a child, which had fallen into the vault and died. The mother was removed to the City Hospital by Patrol No. 4. Here she stated that she was unmarried and resided at 14 Barr-street.

Trouble on the Canadian Pacific.
WINNIPEG, Man., May 13.—Advises from the end of the Canadian Pacific line west say that trouble is feared there with a large body of Italian laborers. They were promised in the end higher wages than are being paid, and have struck work. They are all armed and serious consequences may follow.

No Trace of Cassimer's Roll.
FORT WORTH, Tex., May 13.—Up to 9 late hour last night no clue had been obtained of the man who robbed the Italian priest, Cassimer, of $15,000 on the Texas Pacific train a few days ago. Cassimer left for California last night.

A QUESTION OF COLOR.

Bishop Turner on the Treatment of the Negro by Railroads.

and What Will be Expected of the National Republican Convention—The Great Future of the Negro in Africa.

BALTIMORE, May 13.—Bishop Turner, of Atlanta, who is attending the General Conference of the African Methodist Episcopal Church in this city, said yesterday: "In some parts of the South the colored people are treated very fairly, while in others we are taught to recognize our color as soon as our feet touch the soil. But our condition is better than it was ten years ago."

"Are you treated the same since the Civil Rights Bill was declared unconstitutional?"

BUTCHER OF RAILROADS.

"There is no material difference except on the railroads and steamboats." Nothing has hurt us so much since the day we were emancipated as the action of the Supreme Court. I have heard nearly every colored man I met while traveling abusing the Supreme Court judges. The railroad companies compel us to buy first-class tickets and then oblige us to ride in smoking cars. In several instances pilots have been drawn on colored passengers to force them to submit to such degradation and the railroad officials excuse themselves by saying they are only protecting their interests."

HE THREATENED A FUGAL.

"A few weeks ago I met my wife at Cleveland, Tenn., who was returning from Washington to my home in Atlanta. I conducted her into a first-class coach. A brakeman rushed in and said, 'Here, you folks will have to go into the front car.' I told him my wife had the heart disease and it would be dangerous for her to inhale tobacco smoke. He interrupted me with 'Don't stop to argue; get out, or I will put you both out, and he moved toward my wife. I said I would not leave her, but if you touch my wife there will be a funeral to-morrow in either your family or my own.' He gave me a terrible look and passed on. My wife remained in the car and I went into the smoking car. Another one occurred on the Louisville and Nashville Road. Mrs. Sarah Lewis boarded the train, and as she was refused admittance to any of the first-class cars she remained on the platform. Because the conductor could not put her into the smoking car, he

STUCK HER IN THE FACE.

She has entered suit against the company. There are several ministers from the South attending the general conference in Philadelphia, who were inveigled into buying first-class tickets upon the promise of the agents that they would be permitted to occupy first-class cars, but upon leaving New Orleans they were obliged to go into smoking cars. The officials told them they would either have to go into the smoking car or to hell."

WHAT THEY EXPECT.

He says the colored people expect a plank will be put in the Republican platform in June that will bring the matter squarely before the people.

"What do you think will be the future of your race?"

"We are not dying out as predicted. The negro is the junior race of the world, with the possible exception of the Australian. We have a grand future. Our race will be waiting for centuries after the white race will have begun to wane. The negro is a boy, the white a man. When the man shall have reached old age and dotage, the negro will be in his prime and glory and ruling the world. I think in a few years the better class of colored men will go to Africa and

BUILD A MIGHTY NATION.

While the rig-ruff of our race remain here. The advantages of such migration are many. Recently vast discoveries of wealth have been made in every part of that continent. God has put his hand upon our race and will give us means and unnumbered agencies. It may be that the Supreme Court decision was designed by Providence to arouse the negro to a sense of his responsibility."

"Has your race not sufficient advantages in this country?"

"No, for no people can advance who are treated as we are. In some places in America black is supposed to STAY LIKE THE DEVIL.

And white to represent God. But this is partially wrong, for the devil is white and never was black. There are as many blacks as whites in the universe. There are black worlds, and I think

MILLIONS OF BLACK ANGELS.

In heaven—in fact, there are angels of all colors there. I know I do not represent my race in taking the position I do, as a great mass of them are anti-Africans in the migration sense, but it is only a question of time when they will awake from their slumber and see things in a different light."
